ACTIVITY LEVEL ACTIVE

A moderate pace with good mobility required. Expect periods of walking on varied terrain, occasional stairs, and prolonged standing for more than two hours at a time. Some days may involve early mornings, late evenings, and full days of sightseeing. Travelers must be able to independently board and disembark a motorcoach, manage their own luggage through airports, and safely enter and exit the Red Jammer buses, gondola, and river float. This activity level is not recommended for travelers with mobility limitations or for those who rely on a cane, walker, or wheelchair.

ITINERARY

AUGUST 5 – WELCOME TO THE INLAND NORTHWEST

Your adventure begins with included flights from Buffalo, Rochester, or Syracuse to Spokane, Washington. Upon arrival, meet your professional Tour Director and transfer to your hotel. This evening, gather for a welcome dinner in downtown Spokane—the perfect opportunity to get acquainted before your Northwest adventure begins.

AUGUST 6 – SILVER MINING & SMOKEJUMPERS

Start the day with breakfast before traveling through the beautiful landscapes of northern Idaho, passing the sparkling waters of Lake Coeur d'Alene. Journey underground on a guided tour of the historic Sierra Silver Mine with a real miner as your guide, then enjoy an included lunch in the charming mining town of Wallace. Later, visit the Smokejumpers Base Aerial Fire Depot for a fascinating look at the brave men and women who protect our nation's forests before arriving in Missoula, where the evening is yours to relax or explore.

AUGUST 7 – FLATHEAD LAKE & SCENIC RIVER FLOAT

After breakfast, travel along the shores of spectacular Flathead Lake before enjoying a peaceful float down the crystal-clear Middle Fork of the Flathead River. Watch for wildlife while taking in towering canyon walls and pristine forest scenery. Continue to the charming mountain town of Whitefish, where you'll gather for an included group dinner this evening.

AUGUST 8 – GLACIER NATIONAL PARK

Fuel up with an included breakfast before experiencing one of America's most spectacular national parks, Glacier National Park! Begin at historic Lake McDonald Lodge before boarding a vintage Red Jammer Bus for an unforgettable ride along the legendary Going-to-the-Sun Road. Marvel at breathtaking alpine scenery, towering peaks, cascading waterfalls, and panoramic views from Logan Pass while watching for mountain goats and bighorn sheep. Return to Whitefish this evening, where you'll have time to enjoy dinner on your own and explore the town's inviting shops, galleries, and cafés.

AUGUST 9 – SILVER MOUNTAIN & TRIBAL TRADITIONS

Following breakfast, journey back into Idaho for another unforgettable day. Ride North America's longest gondola to the summit of Silver Mountain and take in breathtaking panoramic views. Enjoy an included mountaintop lunch before traveling along scenic Lake Coeur d'Alene to Worley. This evening, celebrate your adventure with a special farewell dinner featuring authentic Tribal storytelling, traditional music, dance, and cultural traditions.

AUGUST 10 – JOURNEY HOME

Enjoy one final breakfast before transferring to Spokane International Airport for your return flight home to Buffalo, Rochester, or Syracuse. As your journey comes to a close, you'll return home with unforgettable memories of Glacier National Park, scenic mountain landscapes, fascinating history, and the friendships made along the way.
