AAA GROUP TRAVEL ACTIVITY LEVELS

Travel often requires a unique blend of adventuresome spirit, physical and mental alertness, and a capacity for accepting situations as they arise. AAA Group Travel understands that different people have different preferences when it comes to the pace of their travel experiences. Therefore, we have developed group tours with a variety of activity levels to choose from. AAA Group Travel activity levels are designed to help travelers select the pace that is right for them. Please refer to the tour description or consult with your AAA Travel Advisor for specific group tour activity level information.

The AAA group travel activity levels are progressive in nature.

1 = RELAXED – Leisurely pace • Shorter touring days • Some physical activity required, including independently boarding and disembarking a motorcoach.

2 = COMFORTABLE – Easy pace • Some stairs and standing • Short duration walks typically on level terrains.

3 = ACTIVE – Moderate pace • Good mobility needed • Stairs and prolonged standing for more than 2 hours at a time • Some longer days involving early mornings and/or late evenings • Some walking on varied terrain. This Activity Level is not recommended for travelers with mobility issues such as someone who uses a cane, walker, or wheelchair.

4 = CHALLENGING – Fast pace • Frequent physically challenging activities • Walking on varied terrain and/or up to two miles at a time • Longer tour days. This Activity Level is not recommended for travelers with serious medical conditions.

5 = STRENUOUS – Vigorous pace • Frequent strenuous activities • Extensive walking • Longer tour days • Walking on varied terrain.
