Day 2: Start your day with breakfast before boarding the motorcoach for the journey to Mackinac Island, with a lunch stop along the way. Upon arrival at Shepler's Ferry Terminal in Mackinaw City and board the ferry for a scenic ride to the island, where motorized vehicles are replaced by bicycles, horses, and walking paths. Upon check-in, you'll receive a $50 gift card for meals or activities and an attraction ticket valid at several historic sites and museums on the island. Enjoy dinner and the evening at your leisure.

Day 3: Start your day with breakfast at your leisure, using your included gift card if you wish. This morning, embark on a narrated horse-drawn carriage tour of Mackinac Island, concluding at the historic Grand Hotel. The afternoon and evening are yours to explore the island's attractions or relax at your own pace, with optional horse-drawn taxi service available for your return to town.

Day 4: Enjoy a full day at your leisure to explore Mackinac Island, with all meals on your own—this is a wonderful time to use your gift card for breakfast or perhaps rent a bike to see the sights. In the evening, meet your fellow travelers at the Coal Dock for a Sip-n-Sail Sunset Cruise featuring live music and one included drink. After the scenic cruise, return to the hotel on foot.

Day 5: Start your day with breakfast on your own and be sure to use any remaining gift card balance. After your luggage is collected for transport, walk with your group to the ferry dock for your return trip to Mackinaw City. From there, board the motorcoach and travel to Frankenmuth, stopping along the way for lunch at your own expense. Upon arrival, enjoy free time exploring the River Place Shops or taking a short walk into the charming downtown area. Later, check in at the Bavarian Inn Lodge and join your group for an included dinner just across the Cass River.
