ITINERARY:

Day 1 - Fly from Buffalo, Rochester, or Syracuse to Los Angeles and begin your Southern California adventure with a visit to the lively Downtown Disney District, where dazzling décor, live entertainment, and endless dining and shopping set the stage for a magical getaway. Check into Hotel Lulu, BW Premier Collection, and relax in modern comfort. This evening, enjoy a warm welcome dinner at Bubba Gump Shrimp Co., just a short stroll from the hotel. (D)

Day 2 - This morning, volunteers roll up their sleeves to help decorate the world-famous Rose Parade floats, while non-volunteers enjoy a float barn tour to see these floral masterpieces up close. Later, explore The Getty Center, known for its stunning architecture, gardens, and views of Los Angeles. Then, visit the iconic Santa Monica Pier to stroll the boardwalk or dip your toes in the Pacific before returning to Anaheim for a relaxing evening on your own. (B)

Day 3 - Start your day surrounded by beauty at The Huntington Library, Art Museum & Botanical Gardens, where art, literature, and nature meet in one spectacular setting. Continue to Hollywood's TCL Chinese Theatre to see the famed celebrity handprints before returning to Anaheim. This evening, celebrate New Year's Eve with a festive dinner and champagne toast at 9:00 PM, ringing in the East Coast New Year together. (B, D)

Day 4 - Begin the new year with a true American tradition—the spectacular Rose Bowl Parade, viewed from your reserved grandstand seats! Marvel at the colorful floats, marching bands, and equestrian units in this unforgettable event. The afternoon and evening are yours to enjoy at leisure—perhaps visit Disneyland, located just steps from your hotel. (B)

Day 5 - After breakfast, say farewell to sunny California as you transfer to Los Angeles International Airport for your journey home—filled with warm memories of your Southern California New Year celebration. (B)
